Tallinn, Estonia

WELCOME TO ESTONIA! Tucked away in Europe's northeast corner, on the edge of the Baltic Sea, perches one of the continent's most enchanting cities. Tallinn is the capital city of Estonia and combines the luxuries of the modern world as well as the comfort of the old world. Estonia has a rich cultural heritage evident in the rich history of the country.

With half a million citizens, the city of Tallinn is hardly a world metropolis. The Medieval historic town of Tallinn is one of the best-preserved Hanseatic town centers in the world. The town offers rich cultural artistic life, modern towers, gourmet restaurants, and shopping malls.

While awaiting check-in, the group may wish to visit one of the local cafés to enjoy the first tastes of the local cuisine or sample a strong cup of Estonian coffee at one of Tallinn's many atmospheric cafes. Alternatively, rest in the hotel lobby. A Varna International representative will be available to assist with information and directions to nearby tourist attractions that can be visited on your first day in Tallinn.

Recommendation during your stay in Tallinn: Visit the KUMU ART MUSEUM on your own (cost not included). The Kumu Art Museum is the headquarters of the Art Collection of Estonia, as well as the largest exhibition venue in Estonia. In 2008, Kumu Art Museum received the European Museum of the Year Award.
